Giving Thanks for our Gifts

Led by the Revd Judy Dinnen

This day, (or you may wish to make it two or three days) focuses on gifts and prayer. We are all blessed with unique gifts, though we sometimes fail to acknowledge them. St. Paul writes about us all being part of one body with different gifts. But this retreat is not about excelling in anything; it's about having a go and letting go. We will share worship, some poetry and writing and there will be time for reflection, meeting people, walking in this beautiful place and Judy will offer you ways of exploring with words.

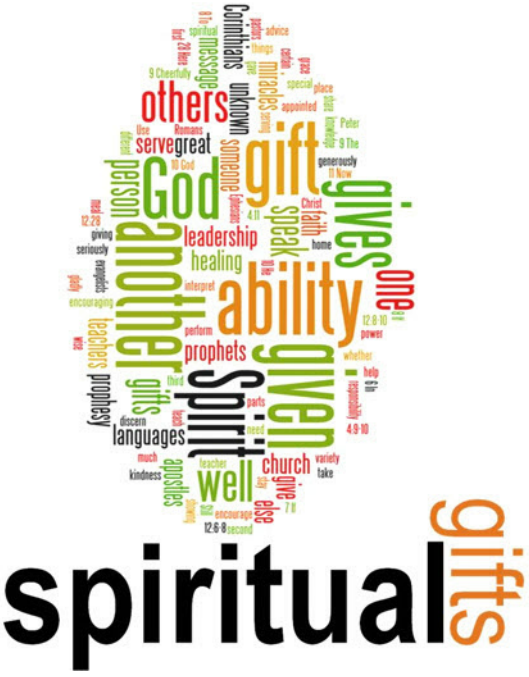

Rev Judy Dinnen is a parish priest in Herefordshire and a poet, with an MA in Creative writing from Cardiff. She delights in words and in the way they help us understand God's message and yet are often inadequate. When leading workshops and retreats, she introduces ways of using words to explore truth and, on this day, to explore what gifts God has given us and give thanks.

Coffee from 10am, commence 10:30am, lunch included, conclude by 4pm
